HUNTINGTON TOWNSHIP
HIGH SCHOOL
HUNTINGTON, INDIANA
PUBLISHED BY SENIOR CLASS
1951

Dedication

With a sense of deep appreciation the Medita for 1951 is dedicated to Mr. J. W. McCrum, principal, advisor and friend. For eleven and a half years, he directed our courses of study, planned cultural events and administered this school. Due to poor health, he was unable to be our principal during the closing months of the school year.

History of Class of '51

FIRST GRADE: On September 1, 1939, forty-seven frightened students faced their teachers, Mrs. Steele and Miss Lee. The students enrolled in Mrs. Steele's room were: Carol Brown, Ernest Cripe, Deloris Davis, James Elston, Willard Garretson, Barbara Gressley, Ronald Harris, John Heiney, Carl Holmes, Camilla Huston, Alberta Jacobs, John Kennedy, Ronald Lash, Ireta Lawson, William McNally, Peggy Mygrant, Helen Sell, Norma Shell, Donald Snider, Esther Snow, Ned Spath, Betty Tobin, Norma Vergon, Allen Smart, Jack Herndon. The students enrolled in Miss Lee's room were: Eloise Bailey, Ronald Ballard, Lewis Beck, Charles Brumbaugh, Marvel Buzzard, Janet Cleaver, Dick Coles, Sue Ann Evert, David Gamble, Richard Keplinger, Maruice Reed, Lou Roger, Nannette Satterthwaite, Marilyn Sieberns, Carl Smith, Marilyn Smyser, Darl Stern, Leon Stern, Ellen Storey, John Swales.

SECOND GRADE: Our class was divided again this year, some of the students going back into Miss Lee's room, while the rest of us went into Miss Jane's room. We had a new member this year, it was that little Susie Kriegbaum from Tipton.

THIRD GRADE: We were studying harder than ever this year. We had different subjects and they seemed to get a little more difficult every year. This year was the same as usual. Our class was separated again with part of the students in Miss Bitner's room and the rest of them went into Mrs. Vernerder's room.

FOURTH GRADE: Well, it seemed to us that we were growing up. We had our recesses on the High School's side of the building now. This was really a treat. Also this year our class was together for the first time since we had started to school. Our teacher this year was Miss Isabella Gesaman. Our new comers this year were Phyllis Hart from Horace Mann, David Merryman from Riley, Junior Schilling from Bippus, and Paul Clark from Huntington Catholic.

FIFTH GRADE: Our fifth grade went pretty fast with Mr. Garr Kitt as our home room teacher, and teaching all our subjects except English. Miss Bitner and Mr. Kitt exchanged classes once a day so therefore we had Miss Bitner for English. The boys in the class were getting interested in sports about this time. They spent most of their free time on the softball diamond. We had one new member added to our class this year. It was Max Schwob from Clear Creek.

SIXTH GRADE: Our sixth grade went fast with only one new comer. This was Evelyn Biddle from Bippus. Our home room teacher was Miss Harriet Bitner now the Mrs. Harriet Fleck.

SEVENTH GRADE: This was one of our big years. We elected class officers. They were: David Merryman, President and Don Snider, Vice-President. We had to pay dues of five cents to the class treasury. We also sold Pathfinder magazine subscriptions, and made some money from that. This was the beginning of our finances. Mrs. Johnson was our home room teacher and Mrs. Clark taught history. Our class was blessed with one new member this year. It was Mae Wall from Markle.

EIGHTH GRADE: Mr. Dale Pence was our teacher this year with Mrs. Young teaching reading and English. We had our first hay-ride. Mr. Smyser took us all around town and then out to his place with a team and a wagon. Our Christmas Party was at David Merryman's. Class Officers were as follows: Marilyn Smyser, President; Carol Brown, Vice-President; Mae Wall, Secretary-Treasurer; Our new additions to the class were: Fred Hauenstein from Clear Creek, Katie Lash from Lincoln, and Anne Swain from Scio, Ohio.

FRESHMEN: Here we are. Our first year in High School. After school had been under-way for a week or so, Mr. McCrum announced that our sponsor would be Calen Colcleasor, a first year teacher from the "College." In our first class meeting we chose Phyllis Hart as President and Anne Swain as Vice-President. Later in the fall season we decided to have a hay-ride and went to Paul Clark's home. Everyone had a good time. At Christmas time we were all invited to a party at Carol Brown's home and so we exchanged names, bought a gift and went.

SOPHOMORES: When we assembled to receive our book lists on the first day of our sophomore year, we found that we had a new member in our midst, Shirley Beady. This year our sponsor was Mr. Ackerman, a shy mathematician now in South America (no connection). Our officers were: David Merryman, President and Fred Hauenstein, Secretary - Treasurer. Max Schwob, Anne Swain, and Dick Coles were student council representatives. We went to Miss Swain's home on our hay-ride. At Christmas time we met at Mae Wall's home and were taken from there to the home of her sister at Andrews, where we completed the party.

JUNIORS: We are now all juniors (will miracles never cease). We added still another new member, Miss Marilyn Jackson. After several tryouts, Mr. Mulligan was our sponsor and directed and produced our famous play, "Believe It or Not". We started our gay social season off with a hay-ride at Carol Brown's. Our Christmas party was at Helen Sell's and was a smashing success. We decided, before school was out, to have a beach party and so on a warm Sunday in July, we met on the court house lawn from whence, we went to Long Lake for a lovely picnic provided for us by the girls. Just after school was out the class went to the state park at Lago for a picnic. Late in the summer the girls held a farewell party for Barbara Chamberlain.

SENIORS: Highlights of a memorable senior year included a hay-ride to the home of Max Schwob. Things got a little rough for asthma sufferers and there seemed to be a lot of them, as straw flew all over the wagon. Other social occasions of the year included a birthday party thrown by Camilla Huston, a surprise party for Marilyn Jackson, a wiener roast at the Carol Brown residence, a slumber party at Snyser's following the Indoor Fair, a Halloween party at Ellen Storey's, a skating party at Beatty's Rollerina, the Christmas party held at Anne Swain's house, and a dance featured by Lloyd Fluke's Orchestra. In addition to the eventful senior trip at the close of the year other excursions were taken including a trip to the Museum of Science and Industry at Chicago and a trip to the State Capitol at Indianapolis.

Prophecy

Ten years have elapsed since our Senior friends of 1951 have graduated. The Juniors of that same year sent two handsome, young, gentlemen to find out what had happened to them.

Starting from our estates on North Jefferson, we proceeded through the metropolis of Huntington until we arrived at the Tivoli Theater. There we find Ronald Ballard, who after ten years in the movie business is now chief popcorn sacker-upper, and is a very capable man in his chosen profession. We find Phyllis Hart working there also. Her job is one requiring great skill and many year's apprenticeship. She staples the bags shut.

Leaving the famous theater, we continue our tour. We stop in front of a beauty saloon, called "Beady The Beautifier." The establishment is owned by Shirley Beady. She is an expert at giving permanents. One of her most famous creations is the Collie Coiffure.

Going out West Park Drive, we see a large neon sign advertising Edingfield and Schwob. We go into the office and see Max Schwob. The reason he is in the wrecked car business is to get parts for his old Ford.

We then travel to Markle to see John Swales and his wife, whose maiden name was Mae Wall. John is coach of the Markle Eagles who now have a winning streak of thirty two games. When asked what the secret of his success was, he replied, "Wheaties".

While in Markle we came upon an undertaking establishment called Coles Mortuary. We find none other than Richard Coles owner of it. He told us that business was really dead.

Traveling south we came upon a town in which there is a circus. We stop to see the main event, which is a lion tamer preforming with her big cats. We were astounded to learn the lion tamer's name was Evelyn Biddle. We saw her do a special act in which she stuck her head in a lion's mouth and sang "Nearer My God To Thee".

In Kentucky we visit the Howard Schilling Plantation and are not Surprised to see him married to the former Sarah Sue Kriegbaum. He is a grower of fine tobacco which he sells to the Fago Tobacco Company.

We decided to visit the gold vaults at Fort Knox. When we arrive there we find Fredrick Hauenstein is night-watchman. While we were talking to him we noticed large bulges in his pockets and his dinner bucket was so full of something we could hardly lift it. When we questioned him about this he fled in terror.

We find John Heiney in Kentucky also. He is now a well known tobacco auctioneer. We asked him why he became a tobacco auctioneer and he replied, "I didn't have a good enough voice to become a hog caller so I took the next best job."

We decided to go to Madison Square Garden where there was going to be a woman's wrestling match. One wrestler, called the Amazon, was going to wrestle Maggie the Mauler. We took ringside seats. When the contestants entered the ring, we were dumbfounded to see that the Amazon Assassination was Annabelle Swain. We asked her why she became a wrestler and she replied, "an overdose of Hadacol did it".

While driving through the suburbs of New York, we see a large factory in which is made "Crunch Crummy Corn Flakes," our favorite cereal. We decide to visit the factory. We are flabbergasted to learn that the owner of the factory is Charles Brumbaugh. His largest product is the large economical size box of Crunchy Crummy Corn Flakes. It holds two tons of the corn flakes and when empty it makes a very nice two-car garage.

Going north toward New York, we tune in to one of our favorite radio programs, "The Lonesome Ghoul", sponsored by the Hiccup Beer and Burppo Ale Company. The star of the program and the one for whom the program is named is Marilyn Jackson. When we arrive in New York we drive to the Metropolitan Opera House where we find Camilla "Lily Pons" Huston and Donald Snider who, when hitting the high notes, sounds like Ezio stuck with a Pinza. They are accompanied by Paul "Hot Lips" Clark, who sings bass. They are currently singing in the opera, "La Vatory".

We visit Broadway and attend a musical. There is a line of chorus girls dancing on the stage and we are shocked to see one of them is Carol Brown.

We visit the Powers Model Agency and we are astonished to find Catherine Lash employed there. She recently was photographed for a series of pictures advertising the Acme Horse Harness Company.

Leaving the agency, we walk down the boulevard until we happen to see an organ grinder standing on the corner. The tune coming forth from his music box is a cross between Sweet Adeline and Tiger Rag. Since we belong to the American Federation for the Preservation and Appreciation of Fine Music, we venture closer to offer our congratulations for sensational performance and to drop a C-note in the monkey's cup. Then we discover that the organ grinder is James "Bucky" Elston. He said his business is getting to be an old grind.

We travel to the Oak Ridge National Laboratory in Tennessee. David Earl Merryman is now a nuclear physicist. He is working on a super-atomic weapon and if it wasn't for a difficult equation which has him stumped, he would be able to build it. The only thing that stands between him and success is the equation  $x-3=4$ .

Close to Brumbaugh's factory, there is a small laboratory from which a strange and exotic odor is escaping. After investigating the odor, we find they produce perfume there. After seeing the other Seniors of "51" we are not surprised to find Helen Sell working there. She is a perfume snuffer. Since she is an expert on perfumes we asked her what she considered to be the best on the market. She replied, "Evening in the Garlic Patch" is my choice because it has that certain aroma which no other perfume can have.

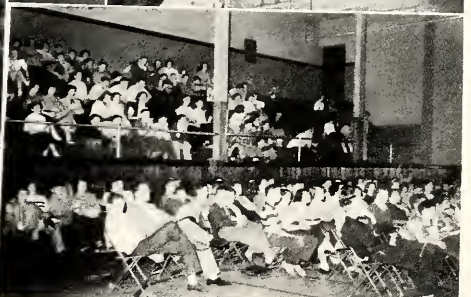

We had always wanted to see what dog food was made of so we went to the Riviel Dog Food Company. We find Ellen Storey working there. His job is to sample the dog food to make sure it is fit for dogs to eat.

When we are back in our custom built auto, we turn on our auto-television set to see our favorite TV show, "The Perfect Marriage" or "He Poisoned His Inlaws." The characters around which the story is build are Billie McNalley and his wife, the former Beverly Ballard.

By information we have picked up, we learn that Marilyn Smyser is in Borneo. We rent a Trans-World Airline plane to take us there. When we arrive there we are met by Marilyn. She tells us she is trying to convert all the monkeys into communists, but they was able to scratch her left ear with her right foot.

Arriving back in Huntington, we go directly to the Jefferson Sanitarium to recuperate from our horrible experience with the Seniors of "51".

Activities

Student Council

Movie Committee

The Senior Movie Committee consisting of David Merryman, Carol Brown, and Mae Wall met with the Senior sponsor, Mr. Diffenbaugh, early in the year to select the movies to be shown under the auspices of the Senior Class. It has been generally conceded that they did an excellent job. They chose to show religious pictures at Christmas time and Easter time. During the rest of the year a number of comedies, interspersed with movies of a serious nature were shown.

Yearbook Staff

The following people were elected to the yearbook staff: David Merryman, Editor; Phyllis Hart, Asst. Editor; Carol Brown, Business Manager, Marilyn Smyser, Asst. Business Manager. Work on the annual was begun almost immediately when the entire class collected advertisements over the Christmas Vacation. After preparing a temporary dummy, the various articles were assigned and written. During the week of February 6, the final work on the yearbook was completed and sent to the lithographers. We hope you approve of the results.

High School Chorus

FIRST ROW: Sue Crago, Marilyn Jackson, Phyllis Hart, Don Snider, Camilla Huston, Arlene Pressler, SECOND ROW: Wanata Frantz, Sandra Day, Rita Barns, Carol Solloway, Marjorie Lahr, Delight Rader, Rhea Sands, Shirley Wires, Joan Reed, Barbara Ballard, Caroline Robbins, THIRD ROW: Miss Haas, Janet Day, Peggy Melling, Wanata Folk, Francis Beedy, Rosie Oden, Carolyn Wechsler, Martha Graham, Donna Keplinger, Beverly Ballard, Phyllis Elston, Barbara Harrell, Regina Rinehart, FOURTH ROW: Albert DuPriest, Richard Johnson, Walter Holley, DeWight Radar, Devoe Cobbs, Paul Clark, Richard Adams, Gene Smith, Gene Callahan, Ronald Yake, Ronald Crumacker, Dean Barton, Walter Call, Donald Vickery.

The chorus, made up of high school students interested in singing, was under the successful direction of Miss Ethel Haas.

At Christmas time the chorus presented a cantata, "Music of Bethlehem," for the student body. They also sang in the Annual Spring Festival which was held on March 15 at the Community Gym. At Easter time the chorus presented for the school and community an Easter cantata, "The Thorn Crowned King."

Band

This year there were forty in the band. Mr. Huston also had twenty beginners playing various instruments. The band had weekly rehearsals every Thursday evening during the summer months. They played for the 4-H Fair and the county teachers' convention at the end of the summer. The band journeyed to the State Fair and played on September 6.

The band's Fall Concert was November 9. In addition to playing for all of the home basketball games, and the county and sectional tournaments, the band took part in the county band and chorus festival. The band marched in the parade, November 25, which brought Santa Claus into town. They also played at the annual Fish Fry February 7.

Some of the band members took part in the solo and ensemble contests, which were held at Fort Wayne. The District Band Contest was held at New Haven. The State Band Contest was held in the spring.

The majorettes for the 1950 - 51 season are Helen Tucker, Sue Crago, and Jane Wilson

This year the sponsor of the Girl's Athletic Association was Mrs. Glenn. Officers for the year were: President: Phyllis Hart, Vice-President: Jane Wilson, Secretary: Martha Graham, and News Reporter: Susie Kriegbaum.

The activities of G.A.A. were bowling, swimming, basketball, softball, volleyball, walking, bicycling, dancing, table tennis, and other sports.

Senior Play

The Senior Class elected Paul Clark, Carol Brown, and Phyllis Hart to select a play. After inspecting various plays they choose "Maid to Order" as the best prospect. This play, under the direction of Mr. Diffenbaugh, was presented the 22nd of March. Everyone agreed that this was one of the best plays ever presented at Huntington Township.

Audio-Visual

The Audio Visual Dept., under the direction of Mr. Yeke, has done an excellent job of supplying educational movies for the various classes. The operators were: Donald Crumpecker, Dewight Radar, and John Gibson.

Athletics

Bearcats

The 1950-51 Bearcats had an up and down season. This was Bob Hendrick's first year as head coach at Township. Max Schwob lead the Bearcats in scoring followed by Jim Alford.

Fred Hauenstein, Max Schwob, Junior Schilling, John Heiney, and John Swales will be lost by graduation, but with Dean Barton, Jim Alford, Eldon Meitzler, Gene Smith, Jerry Tobin, and some promising boys up from the second team the prospects at Township for next season look pretty good.

The Huntington Township Bearcats did not have a very good year as far as the won and lost record was concerned but played several good games during the season. They did a good job of holding down the two powerful teams of Union and Andrews. With only three seniors on the starting nine this year the Bearcats youthful ball club makes next year's potential very great.

The team was led in the hitting department by Dean Barton, who was the most consistent hitter and fielder on the team. Barton, along with Jerry Tobin and John Heiney, handled the pitching scores for the season.
